

SUMMER UNDERWEAR

Most manufacturers of knit underwear have two lines or qualities which are intended to sell for the popular prices, 10c, 15c, 25c or 50c. The buyer wishing to make an extra profit and not caring especially for quality will, of course, buy the cheaper. It's been a rule of this store for years to get the best, even tho' it cost, and it always does, from 25c to 38c a dozen more. These are the goods you'll find on our shelves today—the best kind in every instance. Full lines of Summer Underwear for woman and child are now ready.

The Wonderland Moving Picture company opened the forty-eighth week last night with a large variety of comedy, drama and magic pictures. "Hunting Above the Clouds" is a grand picture, full of perilous situations. "The Waters of Life" is all that can be found in beauty and novelty. "The Restful Ride" is not so restful after all, as the rider was kept in the air most of the time. "Repentance" is played by the same woman and little girl that appeared in "The Doctor's Conscience" a few weeks ago. "The Strong Man" is very strong until his wife spoils his plans. The songs deserve mention, as "Smarty" is being sung in the large cities, but it is illustrated here. "The best thing in life," as sung by Mr. Wm. Robertson, is a reality of life.
